INDEXPLUS has been a fantastic platform, giving us the opportunity to connect with retail customers, architects, and B2B dealers. The show kept us engaged throughout the day, and the response was overwhelming—we received enough enquiries to keep us busy for the next six months.

INDEXPLUS is a wonderful exhibition that gave us the opportunity to meet many trade visitors from the furnishing and interior design sector, including several architects. For us, it is truly a premium event to participate in. As Bavaria, we support companies looking to expand in India and vice versa. We're delighted to be here and will definitely return.

Our experience at INDEXPLUS has been very positive. We received quality leads, and the visitor flow was excellent. We connected with traders and architects, which will help us establish our presence in India. For new ventures like ours, INDEXPLUS is a great platform for networking, building B2B connections, and collaborating with architects. It's been a fantastic start for our business in India.

INDEXPLUS is an impressive show that will continue to grow along with India's furniture industry, and I see it becoming one of the country's largest platforms to showcase furniture brands. Trade shows like this are critical, as they not only create awareness but also bring the entire ecosystem together. The industry is poised to grow very big, and INDEXPLUS will be at the center of this journey.

INDEXPLUS is an outstanding industry event that brings together all market operators - manufacturers, traders, component suppliers, and even consumers - creating a strong forum for showcasing products and growing business.

"INDEXPLUS has once again delivered an outstanding experience for us. We connected with over 300 dealers, and nearly half of our sample products were sold out - a very positive outcome.

We are truly grateful to INDEXPLUS for providing such a powerful platform, and we look forward to participating in the Bangalore edition.

“Our experience at INDEXPLUS has been excellent. Having attended furniture exhibitions for over two decades. We can confidently say that INDEXPLUS stands out with its well-organized stalls and engaging environment.

In this trade for 35 years, we know many industry players, but INDEXPLUS is the one place where we can meet everyone in one spot and also discover new participants - benefiting our business and bringing fresh offerings to the North Region.

INDEXPLUS provided valuable insights into the evolving Indian furniture industry, especially with the introduction of BIS standards. The interactive sessions and exhibition highlighted how the industry is moving toward producing high-quality, globally competitive products. INDEXPLUS plays a key role in driving this transformation, influencing design trends, and supporting the interior industry. I'm glad to have participated.

The Indian market is growing rapidly, and there is strong demand for high-quality furniture components. INDEXPLUS provided an excellent platform to connect with the right visitors. We made valuable connections and are confident these will lead to strong business opportunities in India.

Our experience at INDEXPLUS 2025 has been absolutely fabulous. From the first day, the visitor flow was remarkable, with architects, institutional buyers, and entrepreneurs from across India attending. Each year, INDEXPLUS continues to improve, and this year was no exception. In one word, INDEXPLUS is the pulse of the Indian office furniture industry, truly representing the 'plus' of the sector.
